DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I. Claims 1-4, drawn to a band saw machine having the special technical feature of an upper traveling part and lower traveling part.

Group II. Claims 5-7 drawn to a band saw machine having the special technical feature of a band saw blade introducing means, and a pair of blade guides.

Group III. Claims 8-12, and 13-17, drawn to apparatus and a method of driving a saw blade, and having the special technical feature of a buffer part, and the step of damping the reaction force.

Group IV. Claims 18-21, drawn to a band saw machine and a method of use having the special technical feature of "a main unit vise" and "moving the sending vise backwards".

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: as seen above each group has a separate special technical feature cited therein.

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- a. A buffer of resin.
- b. A buffer of a spring body
- c. A buffer of a 'damper device'
- d. A buffer of a vibration generating device.

It is noted that although "damper device" can refer broadly to encompass a generic term for many "buffer parts" it is believed to be revering to a specific one, as art recognized, and is thereby properly a species.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Claims 9 and 14 are species a.

Claims 10 and 15 are species b.

Claims 11 and 16 are species c.

Claims 12 and 17 are species d.

The following claim(s) are generic: 8 and 13.

5. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: they are mutually exclusive, and cannot be used together, and produce different effects upon the apparatus when in use (a spring has a characteristically different effect than a "damper").

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
